She is sweet, fun-loving, curious, bubbly, friendly, and clever. Sometimes she feels self-conscious about only being a single block. She also loves finding things, which are alone and appears in all episodes to date.
He has purple glasses and two sparkling orange shoes, starting from his eponymous episode onwards. He is very kind and smart and One's best friend who loves helping her make pairs, like shoes and socks.
She looks similar to a jester, wearing a hat with three points, and three red balls down her front. She loves showing off and juggling things, thinks three is the best number, hence her catchphrase, "Look at me!".
He has square-shaped eyes, square-shaped eyebrows, and an upper-overbite. He is happy-go-lucky, sweet, kind-hearted and friendly, loves being a square and finding things which are square.
She wears a Big Blue glove with five fingers, and has a star around one eye. She is sweet, bubbly and friendly, loves reading and guiding the other Numberblocks on adventures and games, and many other things, etc., formed a band in her eponymous episode.